

Users speak volumes.

The only free, GIS-based site selection website serving the 11-county Minneapolis-Saint Paul region – and winner of the 2009 EDAM economic development marketing award!

One year after going live, metroMSP.org received the Minnesota Economic Development Association's top marketing award of 2009. While the recognition speaks volumes, it's the users who tell the real story of how this free website is changing the way they do business.

- Site selectors from other states and countries use MetroMSP.org to identify the best place to locate or expand a business in the U.S.
- Business owners search the website to find the ideal site for a new plant, a branch office, or a start-up enterprise.
- Economic development professionals credit MetroMSP.org with saving them time, making them more efficient, and helping them respond promptly with high quality information.
- Brokers applaud the website because "it provides easy, quick, and free demographics" for their listings and connects them with qualified leads.

If these benefits speak to you, visit MetroMSP.org.
